Ref	DIRECTORATE	DEPARTMENT	RECIPIENT	DATE	DONER	ACCEPTED / DECLINED	VALUE	NATURE OF GIFT/HOSPITALITY	DETAILS OF CIRCUMSTANCES	DISPOSAL
5984	Local Policing and Partnerships		Police Constable	26/02/2018	Member of the public	Accepted	Unknown	2 boxes of assorted biscuits	Donor was a victim of high risk domestic violence. Extensive work by the officer in charge and encouragement throughout allowed victim to have confidence in disclosing numerous violent assaults. This allowed for successful prosecution and various orders being placed following court.	Shared amongst staff and authorised by senior officer
5986	Local Policing and Partnerships		Police Staff Employee	28/02/2018	Member of the public	Accepted	£ 1.00	One pack of biscuits	A member of the public had been trying to get her son back from her ex partner and she obtained the wrong court order. She had spoken to a member of staff on three occasions and the gift is to thank them for their advice.	Authorised for consumption by a senior officer
5985	Serious Crime Directorate		Detective Constable	01/03/2018	Member of the public	Accepted	£ 3.00	2 x Takeaway Coffee	The officer was buying 2 coffees but the person serving them would not accept payment. They have a policy to give free drinks to those that work within the Emergency Services.	This is clearly a gift they give to all of those who visit their establishment that work for any of the Emergency Services
5987	Local Policing and Partnerships		Police Staff Employee	01/03/2018	Member of the public	Accepted	£ 2.50	Large caramel coffee	The staff member attended an establishment to collect some CCTV. The Manager offered a coffee which was accepted. Payment was offered by the Officer but declined by the Manager.	Accepted in accordance with policy 3.7 which was approved by a senior officer
5988	Local Policing and Partnerships		Police Staff Employee	02/03/2018	Member of the public	Accepted	£ 4.00	Small box of donuts	Donated as a goodwill gesture for emergency staff rather than stock being thrown away due to unsold bakery goods.	Consumed by those on duty that day which was authorised by a senior officer
5989	Local Policing and Partnerships		Police Constable	05/03/2018	Member of the public	Accepted	£ 5.00	Box of 4 chocolates	Member of public was frightened by a drunk man climbing fences and knocking on windows to try to get away from police. They were reassured by police attendance and gift was a thank you.	Consumed and authorised by senior officer
5991	Local Policing and Partnerships		Police Staff Employee	12/03/2018	Member of the public	Accepted	£ 5.00	Teddy Bear	The bear was left at the at Front Counter by the donor for the member of staff as a thank you for assisting with his rehabilitation.	This gift is of low value and the officer no longer has any interaction with the donor. Furthermore the donor has been thanked but discouraged from providing any further gifts in the future. The gift has been authorised to be retained in the office.
5994	Central Operations		Police Constables	17/03/2018	Members of the public	Accepted	£ 20.00	Bottle of Champagne	A member of the coach party was left by mistake at the garage within the Channel Tunnel complex. Officers made contact with the coach party and arranged for it to stop at and took the gentleman to meet the coach. Party were French nationals and were very thankful. They offered money which was declined, but several of them came over and put a bottle of champagne on the car seat and insisted on us keeping it. It was clear they wanted to thank the officers and refusal would offend them.	Approved by a senior officer for the officer to receive the gift as a genuine sign of appreciation by the MOP.
5990	Local Policing and Partnerships		Police Constable	21/03/2018	Member of the public	Accepted	£ 10.00	Cake	Handed in by a relative of the member of public who lives elsewhere as a thank you to Officers in Kent who have been dealing with her case.	Consumed by LP units and authorised by senior officer

Kent Police were invited to be involved and speak at Honour Based Abuse event involving 300+ females from South Asian Community in Gravesend. Following speeches, we all ate with the members of the community where further 1-2-1 and questions were asked. Community would have paid a fee to enter approx £7.00 per ticket. We have not made a donation and the event was additionally sponsored by GBC and funding from VAWG hence the rationale for the completing a hospitality form. DCC Blaker wanted just one form to cover all police involvement. Force Priorities were covered in this event including Force marriages, domestic abuse, modern slavery and human trafficking.
