5984	Local Policing and Partnerships	Police Constable	2 boxes of assorted biscuits	Member of the public	26/02/2018	Accepted	Unknown	Donor was a victim of high risk domestic violence. Extensive work by the officer in charge and encouragement throughout allowed victim to have confidence in disclosing numerous violent assaults. This allowed for successful prosecution and various orders being placed following court.	Shared amongst staff and authorised by senior officer
5985	Serious Crime Directorate	Detective Constable	2 x Takeaway Coffee	Member of the public	01/03/2018	Accepted	£3.00	The officer was buying 2 coffees but the person serving them would not accept payment. They have a policy to give free drinks to those that work within the Emergency Services.	This is clearly a gift they give to all of those who visit their establishment that work for any of the Emergency Services
5986	Local Policing and Partnerships	Police Staff Employee	One pack of biscuits	Member of the public	28/02/2018	Accepted	£1.00	A member of the public had been trying to get her son back from her ex partner and she obtained the wrong court order. She had spoken to a member of staff on three occasions and the gift is to thank them for their advice.	Authorised for consumption by a senior officer
5987	Local Policing and Partnerships	Police Staff Employee	Large caramel coffee	Member of the public	01/03/2018	Accepted	£2.50	The staff member attended an establishment to collect some CCTV. The Manager offered a coffee which was accepted. Payment was offered by the Officer but declined by the Manager.	Accepted in accordance with policy 3.7 which was approved by a senior officer
5988	Local Policing and Partnerships	Police Staff Employee	Small box of donuts	Member of the public	02/03/2018	Accepted	£4.00	Donated as a goodwill gesture for emergency staff rather than stock being thrown away due to unsold bakery goods.	Consumed by those on duty that day which was authorised by a senior officer
5989	Local Policing and Partnerships	Police Constable	Box of 4 chocolates	Member of the public	05/03/2018	Accepted	£5.00	Member of public was frightened by a drunk man climbing fences and knocking on windows to try to get away from police. They were reassured by police attendance and gift was a thank you.	Consumed and authorised by senior officer
5990	Local Policing and Partnerships	Police Constable	Cake	Member of the public	21/03/2018	Accepted	£10.00	Handed in by a relative of the member of public who lives elsewhere as a thank you to Officers in Kent who have been dealing with her case.	Consumed by LP units and authorised by senior officer
5991	Local Policing and Partnerships	Police Staff Employee	Teddy Bear	Member of the public	12/03/2018	Accepted	£5.00	The bear was left at the at Front Counter by the donor for the member of staff as a thank you for assisting with his rehabilitation.	This gift is of low value and the officer no longer has any interaction with the donor. Furthermore the donor has been thanked but discouraged from providing any further gifts in the future. The gift has been authorised to be retained in the office.
5992	Central Operations	Police Constable	Gift Vouchers	Member of the public	29/04/2018	Accepted	£1000 - 100 x £10	£10 Gift Vouchers donated to all off duty officers who had volunteered to be involved in a large scale exercise	Senior Officer briefed and in support for them to be distributed to all involved
5993	Local Policing and Partnerships	Police Constable	A book entitled - The Numb and Me and Green trainers	Member of the public	21/03/2018	Accepted	£11.00	The OIC spoke with a victim of a crime to gain details and afterwards insisted the Officer accept a book. This was accepted at the time as it would have offended them if refused.	Authorised by Senior officer for the officer to keep book at home.
5994	Central Operations	Police Constables	Bottle of Champagne	Members of the public	17/03/2018	Accepted	£20.00	A member of the coach party was left by mistake at the garage within the Channel Tunnel complex. Officers made contact with the coach party and arranged for it to stop at and took the gentleman to meet the coach. Party were French nationals and were very thankful. They offered money which was declined, but several of them came over and put a bottle of champagne on the car seat and insisted on us keeping it. It was clear they wanted to thank the officers and refusal would offend them.	Approved by a senior officer for the officer to receive the gift as a genuine sign of appreciation by the MOP.
5995	Corporate Services	Director	Meal	Kent Federation	27/03/2018	Accepted	£20.00	Senior Staff Member met the Kent Federation for an evening meal to discuss various Kent Police initiatives.	Endorsed by DCC
